Go Back to Home

Pick your 'Club' from the dropdown list and then enter your email in the box and select the 'Log In' button.

Golf Rules Education

There is no need to set a password. After you have successfully logged in, select the 'Go Back to Home' button.

The website will look and operate identically for all devices, Desktop, Laptop, Tablet and Phone.

The website will use the whole screen available.

As phones have limited screen area you may need to make the total screen available for phones. This will not be an issue for other devices.

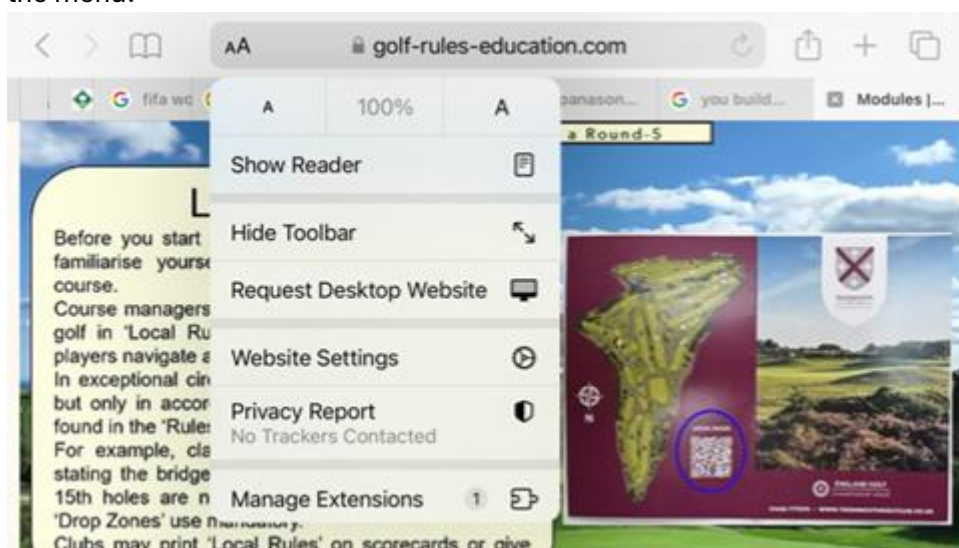

To ensure the web site is easy to see for a phone, rotate phones to access the slides in landscape.

Access Using iPhone

As an example for an older iPhone, when you access the slides, the screen will look like:

You will need to hide the toolbar to regain space, select 'AA' and then select 'Hide Toolbar' from the menu.

The screen will then be able to show the complete slide as shown below.

Access Using Android Phone

For Android phones, there isn't an easy way to hide toolbars, so it is best to use a tablet or Desktop/Laptop to access the website.

Club Team Members

If you are a club team member, after you log in, the Home page will change to give you access to the 'Rules Voice Agent' where you can use 'Ask a Question'.

You can ask anything about rules but use in moderation as this does cost twenty pence a minute to use. This can be very useful when queries about rules occur in the middle of a match.

Golf Rules Education

After you click the 'Ask a Question' button you will be taken to the 'Rules Voice Agent' website.

Please Note When Using the Website

- You have access to the whole website after logging in.
- The Introduction section covers rules you should really know if you play in competitions (You should use this part of the website first as it has slide navigation instructions).
- The Intermediate section covers additional rules you will most likely come across in a golfing career.
- The Advanced section will just test your knowledge and can be difficult!
- The Club Analysis section shows how the club is using the website.
- For club team members, calls cost about twenty pence a minute so use in moderation.
